 - (ii) for a by-election or referendum, as soon as practicable after the date for the by-election or referendum is determined, and
 - (iii) for an election or referendum required to be reconducted under section 69 of the Act, as soon as practicable after the date for reconducting the election or referendum is determined, and
 - (b) if the election is an election for national office or if the referendum is a referendum of the Nisga'a Nation, be mailed to each voter who is listed on the Nisga'a Voters List as not ordinarily residing in any voting area.

NISGA'A ELECTIONS REGULATION

PART 3 – NISGA'A VOTERS LIST AND LISTS OF VOTERSNisga'a Voters List

7. (1) The Nisga'a Elections Officer must include the following information on the Nisga'a Voters List:
- (a) the full name of each voter;
 - (b) the place of ordinary residence of each voter;
 - (c) the voter number for each voter;
 - (d) the date of birth of each voter.
- (2) Subject to section 8(4) of the Act, the Nisga'a Elections Officer may at any time amend the Nisga'a Voters List so as to set out current information in respect of voters.
- (3) A voter who is listed on the Nisga'a Voters List may request in writing that the Nisga'a Elections Officer amend the information set out on the Nisga'a Voters List in respect of that voter so as to
- (a) reflect a change in the name, place of ordinary residence or other circumstances of the voter, or
 - (b) correct an error in that information.
- (4) Before amending the Nisga'a Voters List on the request of a voter under subsection (3), the Nisga'a Elections Officer may require the voter to provide evidence satisfactory to the Nisga'a Elections Officer of the change in the voter's circumstances or the error on the Nisga'a Voters List, as the case may be.

Preparation of preliminary and revised lists of voters

8. (1) Each preliminary and revised list of voters for an election or referendum must include the full name, place of ordinary residence and voter number of each Nisga'a citizen who, on the basis of the Nisga'a Voters List, is entitled to vote in the election or referendum.
- (2) Subject to section 9 of the Act and subsection (1) of this section, the Nisga'a Elections Officer may determine the form of the preliminary and revised lists of voters for an election or referendum.

NISGA'A ELECTIONS REGULATION

Publication of preliminary and revised lists of voters

9. (1) The preliminary and revised lists of voters for an election or referendum must be
- (a) published in accordance with Nisga'a law by the Nisga'a Elections Officer, and
 - (b) subject to subsection (2), made available for public inspection by Nisga'a citizens during regular office hours from the time of their publication under paragraph (a) until the close of general voting, at
 - (i) the office of the Nisga'a Elections Officer,
 - (ii) the principal administrative office of Nisga'a Lisims Government,
 - (iii) the principal administrative office of the Nisga'a Village Government in any Nisga'a Village in which the election or referendum is being conducted, and
 - (iv) the Nisga'a Urban Local Office in any Nisga'a Urban Local Area in which the election is being conducted.
- (2) Before inspecting the preliminary or revised lists of voters for an election or referendum under subsection (1), a Nisga'a citizen other than
- (a) an election official acting in the course of their duties, or
 - (b) an employee of the Nisga'a Nation, a Nisga'a Village or a Nisga'a Urban Local Society acting in the course of their duties,
- must sign a solemn declaration that they will not inspect the list or use the information included in the list except for the purposes of the Act and this Regulation.

Objections to preliminary list of voters

10. (1) An objection to a preliminary list of voters filed with the Nisga'a Elections Officer by a Nisga'a citizen under section 11(1) of the Act must
- (a) be in writing,
 - (b) set out
 - (i) the full name, place of ordinary residence, Nisga'a citizenship number and date of birth of the Nisga'a citizen, and
 - (ii) any additional facts upon which the Nisga'a citizen relies in support of the

objection,

- (c) be dated and signed by the Nisga'a citizen, and
 - (d) be accompanied by any documentary evidence of the matters referred to in paragraph (b) that the Nisga'a citizen wishes the Nisga'a Elections Officer to consider.
- (2) An objection to a preliminary list of voters filed with the Nisga'a Elections Officer by a Nisga'a citizen under section 11(2) of the Act must
- (a) be in writing,
 - (b) set out
 - (i) the full name, place of ordinary residence, Nisga'a citizenship number and date of birth of the Nisga'a citizen,
 - (ii) as listed on the preliminary list of voters, the full name, place of ordinary residence and voter number of the person whose listing the Nisga'a citizen objects to, and
 - (iii) the paragraph of section 11(2) of the Act upon which the Nisga'a citizen bases the objection and the facts upon which the Nisga'a citizen relies in support of the objection,
 - (c) be dated and signed by the Nisga'a citizen, and
 - (d) be accompanied by any documentary evidence of the matters referred to in paragraph (b)(iii) that the Nisga'a citizen wishes the Nisga'a Elections Officer to consider.

Resolving objections to preliminary list of voters

11. (1) If an objection under section 11(1) of the Act is filed with the Nisga'a Elections Officer in accordance with section 11(3) of the Act and section 10(1) of this Regulation, the Nisga'a Elections Officer must
- (a) review the objection and any documentary evidence filed with the objection,
 - (b) conduct any further investigation and consider any further evidence in respect of the objection that the Nisga'a Elections Officer considers advisable,
 - (c) determine whether the Nisga'a citizen who filed the objection is qualified to vote in the election or referendum for which the preliminary list of voters in question has been prepared, and

- (d) decide to allow or dismiss the objection accordingly.
- (2) If an objection under section 11(2) of the Act is filed with the Nisga'a Elections Officer in accordance with section 11(3) of the Act and section 10(2) of this Regulation, the Nisga'a Elections Officer must
- (a) review the objection and any documentary evidence filed with the objection,
 - (b) if the person whose listing on the preliminary list of voters in question is objected to provides the Nisga'a Elections Officer with a response to the objection in accordance with an opportunity provided by the Nisga'a Elections Officer under section 11(5) of the Act, consider that response,
 - (c) conduct any further investigation and consider any further evidence in respect of the objection that the Nisga'a Elections Officer considers advisable,
 - (d) determine whether the person whose listing is objected to is qualified to vote in the election or referendum for which the preliminary list of voters has been prepared, and
 - (e) decide to allow or dismiss the objection accordingly.
- (3) For the purposes of an objection under section 11(1) or (2) of the Act, the Nisga'a Elections Officer must determine the ordinary residence of a person as of the date that the objection is received by the Nisga'a Elections Officer.

Appointment of candidate representatives

18. For the purposes of section 23 of the Act, a candidate may appoint a Nisga'a citizen to represent the candidate by delivering to the Nisga'a Elections Officer a written notice of appointment that
- (a) is in a form satisfactory to the Nisga'a Elections Officer,
 - (b) is dated and signed by the candidate, and
 - (c) includes
 - (i) the name of the candidate,
 - (ii) the name of the Nisga'a citizen appointed to represent the candidate,
 - (iii) a statement that the Nisga'a citizen is appointed under section 23 of the Act, and
 - (iv) a declaration that the Nisga'a citizen is over the age of 18 years.

Presence of candidate representatives at election proceedings

19. (1) When requested by an election official, a candidate representative present at an election proceeding must produce their notice of appointment.

NISGA'A ELECTIONS REGULATION

- (2) A candidate representative present at a voting place during voting proceedings is entitled to inspect a voting book or list of voters being used at the voting place, to the extent that doing so does not interfere with the proceedings.
- (3) The absence of a candidate representative from a place where election proceedings are being conducted does not invalidate the proceedings.

NISGA'A ELECTIONS REGULATION

PART 5 – CANDIDATES AND VOTERS EMPLOYED WITHIN NISGA'A GOVERNMENT
Application

20. This Part applies to employees of the Nisga'a Nation and the Nisga'a Villages.

Candidates who must take leave of absence

- 21. (1) A person who is employed by the Nisga'a Nation as the Chief Executive Officer or as a Nisga'a Lisims Government Director must be granted by the Nisga'a Nation, and must take, an unpaid leave of absence from their employment during any time that the person is a candidate for any elected office.
- (2) The Nisga'a Nation may require any of its employees other than those referred to in subsection (1) to take an unpaid leave of absence from their employment during the time that any such employee is a candidate for any elected office.
- (3) A person who is employed by a Nisga'a Village as the Chief Administrator of its Nisga'a Village Government must be granted by the Nisga'a Village, and must take, an unpaid leave of absence from their employment during any time that the person is a candidate for
- (a) any national office, or
- (b) the office of Chief Councillor or Village Councillor of the Nisga'a Village Government.
- (4) A Nisga'a Village may require any of its employees other than the Chief Administrator of its Nisga'a Village Government to take an unpaid leave of absence from their employment during the time that any such employee is a candidate for an elected office referred to in subsection (3).
- (5) [Repealed, NLGSR 2013/07, s. 5]
- (6) [Repealed, NLGSR 2013/07, s. 5]

Candidates who may request leave of absence

- 22. If a candidate for an elected office is employed by the Nisga'a Nation or a Nisga'a Village, but is not required to take a leave of absence from their employment under section 21,
- (a) the candidate may request an unpaid leave of absence in writing, and

NISGA'A ELECTIONS REGULATION

- (b) the candidate's employer may, in its discretion, grant the candidate an unpaid leave of absence upon receiving such a request.

Rules governing leaves of absence

- 23. (1) A leave of absence from employment referred to in this Part
- (a) must be full-time if it is taken or required under section 21, and
 - (b) in any other case, may be full-time or part-time, as determined by the employer.
- (2) A candidate referred to in section 22 may request a part-time leave of absence from employment under that section, in which case the candidate must in their request specify the days and hours of leave requested.
- (3) An employee on a leave of absence from employment referred to in section 21 or 22
- (a) is not entitled to pay, but
 - (b) is entitled to all other benefits attached to the person's employment, subject to subsection (4).
- (4) If a candidate makes a written request before or at the beginning of a leave of absence from employment referred to in section 21 or 22, the employee may, during that leave of absence, continue to contribute to any pension, medical or other plan beneficial to the employee in which the employee participates, as long as
- (a) the employee pays both the employee's and the employer's contributions to the plan, and
 - (b) the terms of the plan permit the employee to continue to participate in the plan on that basis while on a leave of absence.
- (5) Subject to subsections (3) and (4), the services of an employee on a leave of absence from employment referred to in section 21 or 22 are to be considered continuous throughout the period of the leave of absence.

Duration of leaves of absence

- 24. (1) Subject to subsection (2), a candidate's leave of absence from employment, as referred to in section 21 or 22, ends
- (a) if the candidate withdraws from the election in which they were standing for elected office, on the day after their withdrawal, or

NISGA'A ELECTIONS REGULATION

- (b) in any other case, on the day after the official results of the election in which the candidate has stood for elected office are declared by the Nisga'a Elections Officer.
- (2) A candidate who has requested and been granted a leave of absence from employment under section 22 may end the leave of absence by notice to their employer.

25. [Repealed, NLGSR 2011/06, s. 11]

Employer must not prejudice employee

26. (1) An employer must not, because of an employee's candidacy or a leave of absence required or taken in accordance with this Part,
- (a) dismiss, lay off, suspend, or demote the employee, or
 - (b) diminish any benefit attached to their employment to which the employee is entitled in accordance with section 23(3).
- (2) Upon an employee's return from a leave of absence required or taken in accordance with this Part, the employer must
- (a) return the employee to their former employment position on the same or substantially the same terms and conditions as when the leave was granted,
 - (b) if, for reasons unrelated to the employee's candidacy or leave of absence, the employee's former employment position is no longer available or vacant,
 - (i) make reasonable efforts to provide the employee with a comparable employment position commensurate with the employee's skills, training and abilities, and
 - (ii) if not able to provide the employee with a comparable employment position after making reasonable efforts, terminate the employee's employment without cause.
- (3) An employee whose employment is terminated in accordance with subsection 2(b)(ii) will be entitled to any rights on termination contained in the employment contract between the employee and their employer.

NISGA'A ELECTIONS REGULATION

Time off from work for campaigning

27. The Nisga'a Nation or a Nisga'a Village may, in its discretion, allow reasonable time away from work for any of its employees who are candidates for an elected office to be filled in an election, but who are not on a leave of absence from their employment under section 21 or 22, to campaign for their election to the elected office
- (a) without pay, and
 - (b) as best suits the convenience of the employer.

Time off from work for voting

28. (1) An employee of the Nisga'a Nation or a Nisga'a Village who is entitled to vote in an election or referendum is entitled to have four consecutive hours free from employment during voting hours for general voting during the election or referendum.
- (2) Subject to subsection (3), an employer referred to in subsection (1)
- (a) may arrange required time off for the purpose of allowing its employees to vote in an election or referendum as best suits the convenience of the employer, but
 - (b) must not deduct pay from or otherwise penalize its employees for taking the time off.
- (3) Despite subsection (2), election officials and persons employed or retained by the Nisga'a Elections Officer to work on a voting day for an election or referendum are not entitled to time off under this Regulation.

NISGA'A ELECTIONS REGULATION

PART 6 – VOTINGOffice of district Nisga'a Elections Officer

29. In each voting area in which an election or a referendum is being held, the Nisga'a Elections Officer may designate an elections office for the district Nisga'a Elections Officer.

Voting places

30. (1) The Nisga'a Elections Officer must designate an election official to serve as the election official responsible for each voting place established for the purposes of an election or referendum.
- (2) The Nisga'a Elections Officer must ensure that a copy of the Nisga'a Voters List and of the revised list of voters for an election or referendum are made available for inspection at each voting place established for the purposes of the election or referendum.

Voting stations

31. (1) At each voting place established in a voting area for the purposes of an election or referendum, the district Nisga'a Elections Officer for the voting area must establish sufficient voting stations to accommodate the number of voters anticipated to vote at the voting place in the election or referendum.
- (1.1) At each voting place established in an additional voting location for the purposes of an election or referendum, the election official responsible for the additional voting location must establish sufficient voting stations to accommodate the number of voters anticipated to vote at the voting place in the election or referendum.
- (2) At each voting place established in a voting area for the purposes of an election, the district Nisga'a Elections Officer for the voting area must
- (a) establish separate voting stations for each elected office in respect of which ballots are to be cast in the election, and
- (b) designate voting stations at which particular voters are entitled to vote.
- (2.1) At each voting place established in an additional voting location for the purposes of an election, the election official responsible for the additional voting location must

 - (b) determine whether the person whose request to vote in the election or referendum was challenged meets the requirements for voting and record that determination in the voting book, and
 - (c) if the challenged person is determined to meet the requirements for voting, issue a ballot to that person.
- (2) A Nisga'a citizen who is issued a ballot for voting in an election or referendum in accordance with this section must
- (a) mark the ballot provided to them by the election official responsible,
 - (b) fold the marked ballot and return it to the election official responsible with the counterfoil number showing,
 - (c) after the election official responsible has
 - (i) placed the marked ballot in the appropriate secrecy envelope and sealed it,
 - (ii) placed the sealed secrecy envelope in a certification envelope and sealed it,

and

- (iii) completed the information required to be included on the certification envelope,
 - sign the declaration printed on the certification envelope in the presence of the election official responsible,
 - (d) complete the information required to be included on the certification envelope, and
 - (e) provide the sealed certification to the election official responsible.
- (3) A solemn declaration required to be made by a voter under section 41(5) of the Act or a declaration required to be signed by a voter under subsection (2)(c) of this section must be in a form determined by the Nisga'a Elections Officer.
- (4) A ballot cast by a Nisga'a citizen in accordance with this section may not be opened and counted as part of the initial count for an election or referendum, and may not be opened and counted in the final count for the election or referendum unless the Nisga'a Elections Officer has confirmed that the person did not vote more than once in the election or referendum.

Voting books

43. (1) At each voting place established in a voting area for the purposes of an election or a referendum, a separate voting book must be used to record the following groups of voters to whom ballots are issued at a voting opportunity for the election or referendum:
- (a) voters whose names are included on the revised list of voters for the voting area;
 - (b) non-resident voters who have voted in accordance with section 36;
 - (c) voters whose names are not included on the revised list of voters for the voting area or the Nisga'a Voters List and who have voted in accordance with section 41(4);
 - (d) voters whose request to vote in an election or a referendum has been challenged under section 41 of the Act and who have voted in accordance with section 42(2) of this Regulation.
- (2) At each voting place established in an additional voting location for the purposes of an election or a referendum, a separate voting book must be used to record the following groups of voters to whom ballots are issued at a voting opportunity for the election or referendum:

- (a) non-resident voters who have voted in accordance with section 36;

 - (b) the ordinary residential address of the voter;
 - (c) the voter number of the voter;
 - (d) the date on which the voter voted.

Record of mail-in ballots and electronic ballots

- 43.1 (1) Before the start of advance voting for an election or referendum, the Nisga'a Elections Officer must provide the election official responsible at each voting place established for the election or referendum a record indicating
- (a) the voters who were provided a mail-in ballot under section 35(2) of the Act for the election or referendum, and
 - (b) the voters who are to be provided an electronic ballot under section 35.1(4)(a) of the Act for the election or referendum.
- (2) Before the start of general voting for an election or referendum, the Nisga'a Elections Officer must provide the election official responsible at each voting place established for the election or referendum a record indicating
- (a) the voters who were provided a mail-in ballot under section 35(2) of the Act for the election or referendum, and
 - (b) the voters who are to be provided an electronic ballot under section 35.1(4)(a) of the Act for the election or referendum.
- (3) During voting hours on general voting day for an election or referendum, the Nisga'a

NISGA'A ELECTIONS REGULATION

Elections Officer must ensure that the election official responsible at each voting place established for the election or referendum has access to the record referred to in section 71.1(2)(j).

Style of ballot

44. (1) If two or more candidates for an elected office to be filled in an election have the same surname, their names must be arranged on the ballot for the elected office alphabetically in order of their given names or usual names included on the nomination forms provided to the Nisga'a Elections Officer.
- (2) A ballot for an elected office to be filled in an election must not include any of the following:
- (a) an indication that a candidate holds, or has held, an elected office;
 - (b) a candidate's occupation;
 - (c) an indication of a title, honour, degree or other decoration received or held by a candidate.
- (3) If an election for an elected office is still required after a candidate withdraws from the election, and if ballots for the elected office in the election have been prepared before the withdrawal of the candidate, the Nisga'a Elections Officer must notify each election official as soon as possible of the withdrawal of the candidate and
- (a) if the withdrawal of the candidate takes place before the start of advance voting in the election and in the opinion of the Nisga'a Elections Officer
 - (i) it is practicable to replace those ballots in time for the start of advance voting, the Nisga'a Elections Officer must prepare new ballots without the name of the candidate who has withdrawn for use in advance voting and general voting,
 - (ii) it is not practicable to replace those ballots in time for the start of advance voting but it is practicable to replace those ballots in time for the start of general voting, the Nisga'a Elections Officer must
 - (A) post at each voting place at which the ballots are to be used for advance voting a notice of the withdrawal of the candidate,
 - (B) if time permits, indicate on the ballots to be used for advance voting that the candidate has withdrawn, and
 - (C) prepare new ballots without the name of the candidate who has

withdrawn for use in general voting, or

- (iii) it is not practicable to replace those ballots in time for the start of advance or general voting, the Nisga'a Elections Officer must
 - (A) post at each voting place at which the ballots are to be used for advance voting or general voting a notice of the withdrawal of the candidate, and
 - (B) if time permits, indicate on the ballots to be used for advance voting and general voting that the candidate has withdrawn, or
- (b) if the withdrawal of the candidate take places after the start of advance voting in the election and in the opinion of the Nisga'a Elections Officer
 - (i) it is practicable to replace those ballots for the start of general voting, the Nisga'a Elections Officer must prepare new ballots without the name of the candidate who has withdrawn for use in general voting, or
 - (ii) it is not practicable to replace those ballots for the start of general voting, the Nisga'a Elections Officer must
 - (A) post at each voting place at which the ballots are to be used for general voting a notice of the withdrawal of the candidate,
 - (A.1) deliver a notice of the withdrawal of the candidate to each voter to whom an electronic ballot will be issued under 35.1(4)(a) of the Act for the election at the email address provided by that voter under section 38.1(2)(c), and
 - (B) if time permits, indicate on the ballots to be used for general voting that the candidate has withdrawn.

Ballot papers, certification envelopes and other materials

- 45. (1) For the purposes of an election or referendum, a ballot paper must be prepared in such a manner that it can be divided into
- (a) a ballot to be marked by a voter for the purpose of voting in the election or referendum,
 - (b) a numbered counterfoil to identify the ballot before the ballot is deposited in a ballot box, and
 - (c) a numbered stub to provide a record of the ballot issued to a voter for the purpose of voting in the election or referendum.

- (2) For the purposes of an election or a referendum, ballot papers must be prepared in books containing a fixed number of ballot papers, as determined by the Nisga'a Elections Officer.
- (3) For the purposes of an election, a secrecy envelope must indicate on its face the elected office for which it contains a ballot.
- (4) For the purposes of an election or referendum, a certification envelope
 - (a) must include a written declaration in a form determined by the Nisga'a Elections Officer, to be signed by the voter voting in the election or referendum,
 - (b) must provide space to include
 - (i) the full name of the voter, as it appears on the revised list of voters or the Nisga'a Voters List, if applicable,
 - (ii) the ordinary residential address of the voter,
 - (iii) the counterfoil number of the ballot issued to the voter,
 - (iv) the signature of the voter, and
 - (v) the full name and signature of the person witnessing the signature of the voter, and
 - (c) may include any other information that the Nisga'a Elections Officer determines to be necessary.
- (5) This section does not apply to electronic ballots.

NISGA'A ELECTIONS REGULATION

PART 7 – COUNTING THE VOTEDivision 1 – The Initial Count*When initial count is to take place

- 46. (1) Subject to subsections (2) and (3), the initial count of resident ballots used for voting in a voting area in an election or a referendum must not take place until the close of general voting for the election or referendum, but must take place as soon as possible after that time.
- (2) If the close of general voting for a particular voting area is extended in accordance with section 27 of the Act, the initial count for the voting areas other than the one for which general voting was extended may take place as soon as possible after the close of general voting for those voting areas.
- (3) If the close of general voting for a particular voting area is extended by an adjournment in accordance with section 28 of the Act, the initial count for all voting areas must not begin until the close of general voting for that voting area.

Where initial count is to take place

- 47. (1) The initial count of resident ballots used for general voting in a voting area in an election or a referendum must be conducted at the voting place where the general voting was conducted, unless the Nisga'a Elections Officer or the district Nisga'a Elections Officer directs that the initial count is to be conducted at another location.
- (2) [Repealed, NLGSR 2011/06, s. 26]
- (3) The Nisga'a Elections Officer or the district Nisga'a Elections Officer must notify the candidates in an election of the date, time and place of the initial count for the election.

Who conducts initial count

- 48. (1) In this Division, “voting officer” includes another election official assigned by the election official responsible under section 49(2)(a) of the Act.
- (2) Subject to subsection (3), the voting officer responsible for a ballot box used for resident ballots at a voting place in a voting area may be assisted by another election official in conducting an initial count of the votes marked on the ballots cast in the ballot box.
- (3) A voting officer referred to in subsection (2) must personally make all decisions

regarding the acceptance of a vote or the rejection of a ballot.

Proceedings on initial count

- 49. The initial count of the votes marked on the ballots cast in a ballot box used for resident ballots at a voting place in a voting area must proceed as follows:
- (a) the ballot box is to be opened by the responsible voting officer;
 - (b) any certification envelopes included in the ballot box are to be removed by the voting officer and kept separate and unopened for inclusion with the other election materials required to be delivered to the district Nisga'a Elections Officer in accordance with section 54;
 - (c) the remaining ballots in the ballot box are to be considered in accordance with sections 51 to 53;
 - (d) the ballot account for the ballot box is to be prepared in accordance with section 50;
 - (e) the ballots and other election materials are to be packaged in accordance with section 54 for delivery to the district Nisga'a Elections Officer.

Ballot account for initial count

- 50. (1) The voting officer conducting an initial count of the votes marked on the ballots cast in a ballot box for resident ballots at a voting place in a voting area must prepare a ballot account for that ballot box in accordance with section 49(3) of the Act and this section.
- (2) A ballot account prepared under subsection (1)
- (a) must be
 - (i) in a form determined by the Nisga'a Elections Officer,
 - (ii) in duplicate, and
 - (iii) signed by the person who prepared the ballot account, and
 - (b) may be signed by any other election official present at the initial count.
- (3) Once completed, one of the duplicate ballot accounts must be placed in the ballot box and, if the person conducting the initial count is not the election official responsible for the voting place in question, the other duplicate ballot account must be delivered to the election official responsible.

- (4) The voting officer must provide a signed copy of the ballot account to each candidate representative present at the initial count who requests it.

Consideration of ballots

- 51. (1) Each ballot to be considered on the initial count must be dealt with as follows:
- (a) the voting officer must unfold the ballot;
 - (b) if the counterfoil of the ballot is attached, the voting officer must remove and discard the counterfoil, without examining the number on it and with care to conceal the number from other persons present;
 - (c) the voting officer must determine, in accordance with section 50 of the Act and section 52 of this Regulation, whether the ballot is to be accepted as a vote for a candidate or referendum result or whether it is to be rejected;
 - (d) after making the determination under paragraph (c), the voting officer must call out, as applicable,
 - (i) the name of the candidate for whom or referendum result for which the vote is recorded, if the ballot is accepted as a vote, or
 - (ii) that the ballot is rejected;
 - (e) the voting officer must place the ballot in such a manner that any candidate representatives present are able to see how the ballot is marked.
- (2) The voting officer, or another election official present at the initial count, must record the votes accepted for each candidate or referendum result as they are counted.
- (3) Once started, the initial count must proceed as continuously as is practical.

Rules for accepting and rejecting ballots

- 52. A ballot must be rejected if any of the following applies:
- (a) the ballot physically differs from the ballots officially provided for the voting proceedings for which the count is being conducted;
 - (b) there is no mark on the ballot;

NISGA'A ELECTIONS REGULATION

- (c) the ballot is uniquely marked in such a manner that the voter could reasonably be identified;
- (d) in the case of an election, the ballot
 - (i) is marked with votes for more candidates than the number of elected offices to be filled in the election, or
 - (ii) does not clearly indicate the intention of the voter to vote for a candidate;
- (e) in the case of a referendum, the ballot does not clearly indicate the intention of the voter to vote for a particular referendum result.

Objections to acceptance of vote or rejection of ballot on initial count

- 53. (1) An objection to the acceptance of a vote or rejection of a ballot by a candidate representative in accordance with section 52(1) of the Act may be made only at the time the ballot is considered by the voting officer during the initial count.
- (2) The decision of the voting officer regarding the acceptance of a vote or the rejection of a ballot in an initial count
- (a) may not be challenged except as provided in section 52 of the Act and this section, and
 - (b) may only be changed by the Nisga'a Elections Officer on a recount conducted as part of the final count under section 57 of the Act, or by the Nisga'a Administrative Decisions Review Board on a recount conducted under section 62(5)(a)(ii) or (b) of the Act.
- (3) If a ballot is subject to an objection under section 52 of the Act, the voting officer must
- (a) record the objection on a form determined by the Nisga'a Elections Officer, numbering each objection with a sequential number, and
 - (b) mark the number assigned to the objection under paragraph (a) on the back of the ballot and initial that number.

Packaging and delivery of election materials to Nisga'a Elections Officer

- 54. (1) After the ballot account for a ballot box is complete, the voting officer must separately package each of the following:
- (a) ballots accepted as votes

- (i) in the case of an election, separated by votes for each candidate, and
 - (ii) in the case of a referendum, separated by votes for “yes” and “no” answers;
 - (b) rejected ballots;
 - (c) ballots that were marked as spoiled and replaced under section 39 of the Act;
 - (d) unused ballots and the stubs of used ballots;
 - (e) unopened certification envelopes separated by class of certification envelope in accordance with section 57(2).
- (2) Each package prepared under subsection (1) must be
- (a) sealed by the voting officer,
 - (b) marked to indicate its contents, and
 - (c) placed in the ballot box together with
 - (i) a completed ballot account, and
 - (ii) any other materials specified by the Nisga'a Elections Officer.
- (3) The voting officer must seal the ballot box with the contents referred to in subsection (2) inside and deliver the ballot box to the district Nisga'a Elections Officer in the manner directed by the district Nisga'a Elections Officer.
- (4) The district Nisga'a Elections Officer must, as soon as possible after the completion of the initial count, deliver to the Nisga'a Elections Officer
- (a) the ballot boxes received by the district Nisga'a Elections Officer under subsection (3), and
 - (b) any other materials specified by the Nisga'a Elections Officer.

Division 2 – The Final CountWhen and where final count is to take place

55. (1) The final count for an election or referendum must take place as soon as possible after the general voting day for the election or referendum.

- (2) The final count for an election or referendum must be conducted at the office of the Nisga'a Elections Officer, unless the Nisga'a Elections Officer directs that the final count is to take place at another location.

Who conducts final count

- 56. (1) Subject to subsection (2), in conducting the final count for an election or referendum, the Nisga'a Elections Officer may be assisted by other election officials and a systems operator retained for that election or referendum, and for that purpose may delegate authority under this Division to those election officials or that systems operator.
- (2) During the final count, only the Nisga'a Elections Officer may deal with any ballots that are the subject of an objection under section 52 of the Act or section 53 of this Regulation.

Preparations for final count

- 57. (1) Ballot boxes delivered to the Nisga'a Elections Officer for the final count for an election or a referendum must be dealt with as follows:
- (a) each ballot box must be opened by the Nisga'a Elections Officer;
 - (b) the election materials, other than the packages containing ballots that were considered in the initial count, must be removed from the ballot box;
 - (c) the ballot box must be resealed by the Nisga'a Elections Officer.
- (2) Any package containing certification envelopes must be opened and the certification envelopes must be sorted by the following classes:
- (a) certification envelopes used by non-resident voters voting in accordance with section 36;
 - (b) certification envelopes used by voters voting by mail in accordance with section 37;
 - (c) certification envelopes used by voters voting in accordance with section 41;
 - (d) certification envelopes used by voters voting in accordance with section 42.

NISGA'A ELECTIONS REGULATION

Proceedings on final count

- 58. (1) The final count for an election or referendum must proceed as follows:
- (a) each class of certification envelopes referred to in section 57(2) must be considered in accordance with section 60;
 - (b) after a class of certification envelopes is considered in accordance with section 60, a ballot account for the class must be prepared in accordance with section 59(1);
 - (c) for each class of certification envelopes, the certification envelopes to be opened on the final count are to be dealt with in accordance with section 62;
 - (d) after each class of certification envelopes is dealt with in accordance with section 62, the ballot account for the class is to be completed in accordance with section 59(2);
 - (d.1) ballot accounts for electronic ballots cast in the election or referendum must be completed in accordance with section 62.1;
 - (e) any recount of the ballots considered in an initial count under section 57 of the Act must be conducted in accordance with section 63 of this Regulation;
 - (f) the Nisga'a Elections Officer must prepare a summary of
 - (i) the ballot accounts prepared on the initial count in accordance with section 49(3) of the Act and section 50 of this Regulation,
 - (i.1) the ballot accounts prepared on the final count in accordance with section 62.1,
 - (ii) the accounts prepared by the district Nisga'a Elections Officer for each voting area in accordance with section 49(5) of the Act,
 - (ii.1) the accounts prepared by the election official responsible for each additional voting location in accordance with section 52.1 of the Act, and
 - (iii) the ballot accounts prepared on the final count in accordance with section 59;
 - (g) the final results of the election or referendum are to be determined in accordance with section 54(1) of the Act.
- (2) Despite any other provision of this Division, if it appears from a ballot account that there are so few certification envelopes of a class that the secrecy of the ballots may be at risk, the Nisga'a Elections Officer may authorize the certification envelopes in a class to be

- combined with those of another class.
- (3) If certification envelopes are combined under subsection (2),
- (a) the ballot account prepared for the class that has the smaller number of certification envelopes must be attached to the ballot account for the other class, and
 - (b) the ballot account for the class that has the larger number of certification envelopes must be completed for all combined envelopes.

Ballot account for certification envelopes

- 59. (1) For each class of certification envelopes, the Nisga'a Elections Officer must prepare in duplicate a ballot account including the following information:
- (a) the election or referendum for which the ballot account is prepared;
 - (b) the class of certification envelopes for which the ballot account is prepared;
 - (c) the number of certification envelopes considered within the class of certification envelopes;
 - (d) the number of certification envelopes that the Nisga'a Elections Officer has determined must remain unopened under section 60.
- (2) After the ballots in a class of certification envelopes have been dealt with in accordance with section 62, the Nisga'a Elections Officer must complete the ballot accounts referred to in subsection (1) with the following information:
- (a) in the case of an election, the number of votes accepted for each candidate listed on the ballots included in the certification envelopes within the class of certification envelopes;
 - (b) in the case of a referendum, the number of votes accepted for the "yes" and "no" answers on the ballots included in the certification envelopes within the class of certification envelopes;
 - (c) the number of ballots rejected;
 - (d) the number of secrecy envelopes contained within the certification envelopes included in the class of certification envelopes that remain unopened under section 60.
- (3) The ballot accounts prepared in accordance with subsections (1) and (2) must be signed

- by the Nisga'a Elections Officer and may be signed by any other election official present at the final count.
- (4) The Nisga'a Elections Officer must provide a signed copy of a ballot account prepared in accordance with this section for the purposes of an election to
- (a) each candidate representative present at the final count for the election who requests a copy, and
 - (b) any candidate in the election who requests a copy within seven days after the date of the final count.

Consideration of certification envelopes

- 60. (1) A certification envelope must remain unopened and any ballot included in it must not be considered on the final count in an election or a referendum if the Nisga'a Elections Officer determines that one or more of the following applies:
- (a) the envelope has not been completed in accordance with this Regulation;
 - (b) the person identified on the envelope as having used the envelope to vote in the election or referendum is not the person to whom the certification envelope was issued;
 - (c) the person identified on the envelope as having used the envelope to vote in the election or referendum is not entitled to vote in the election or referendum;
 - (d) the person identified on the envelope as having used the envelope to vote in the election or referendum appears to have voted more than once in the election or referendum;
 - (e) the counterfoil number of the mail-in ballot recorded on the certification envelope does not correspond to the counterfoil number recorded by the Nisga'a Elections Officer in the appropriate voting book for the voter in question.
- (2) If the Nisga'a Elections Officer determines that a certification envelope is to remain unopened in accordance with subsection (1) and not considered on the final count in an election or referendum, the Nisga'a Elections Officer must make a notation on the envelope indicating
- (a) that the envelope is to remain unopened, and
 - (b) the reason that the envelope is to remain unopened.

NISGA'A ELECTIONS REGULATION

Objections respecting certification envelopes

- 61. (1) A candidate representative may object to a determination by the Nisga'a Elections Officer under section 60(1) regarding whether or not a certification envelope is to remain unopened during the final count.
- (2) An objection under subsection (1) must be made at the time the certification envelope is considered by the Nisga'a Elections Officer.
- (3) The determination of the Nisga'a Elections Officer regarding whether or not a certification envelope must remain unopened
- (a) may not be challenged except as provided in this section, and
- (b) may only be changed by the Nisga'a Administrative Decisions Review Board on a recount conducted under section 62(5)(b) of the Act.

Consideration of ballots from certification envelopes

- 62. (1) After the ballot account for a class of certification envelopes is prepared in accordance with section 59, the remaining certification envelopes must be opened one at a time and dealt with as follows:
- (a) if a certification envelope contains only one ballot but no secrecy envelope, the election official responsible must place the ballot in the appropriate ballot box, with care to conceal any marking on the ballot from other persons present at the final count;
- (b) if a secrecy envelope is uniquely marked, or otherwise uniquely dealt with, in such a manner that the voter could reasonably be identified, the election official responsible must open the envelope, and if it contains only one ballot, remove the ballot and place it in the appropriate ballot box, with care to conceal any marking on the envelope and ballot from other persons present at the final count;
- (c) if not otherwise dealt with under this subsection, a secrecy envelope contained within the certification envelope must be removed from the certification envelope for opening in accordance with subsection (2).
- (2) The secrecy envelopes referred to in subsection (1)(c) are to be opened one at a time and dealt with as follows:
- (a) if a secrecy envelope contains more than one ballot for an elected office or referendum question,
- (i) the ballots must be resealed in the secrecy envelope,

NISGA'A ELECTIONS REGULATION

- (ii) the secrecy envelope must be marked as having been dealt with under this paragraph, and
 - (iii) the secrecy envelope must not be reopened and the ballots in it must not be considered on the final count;
 - (b) if a secrecy envelope contains only one ballot, the ballot must be placed in the appropriate ballot box;
 - (c) after all ballots to be considered under this subsection have been placed in the appropriate ballot boxes, the contents of each ballot box must be mixed to ensure secrecy of the ballot.
- (3) After the ballot boxes have been prepared in accordance with subsections (1) and (2), the final count of the ballots in each ballot box must be completed by the Nisga'a Elections Officer, who must follow the procedures prescribed under section 51 for a voting officer considering ballots on an initial count.

Procedure for counting electronic ballots

- 62.1 (1) When required under section 58(1) for the purposes of an election, the Nisga'a Elections Officer must cause the electronic voting system to generate a report, in duplicate, for each elected office in respect of which electronic ballots were cast in the election that contains the following:
- (a) the number of electronic ballots deposited in the electronic ballot box, and
 - (b) the number of votes for each candidate marked in the electronic ballots deposited in the electronic ballot box.
- (2) When required under section 58(1) for the purposes of a referendum, the Nisga'a Elections Officer must cause the electronic voting system to generate a report, in duplicate, that contains the following:
- (a) the number of electronic ballots deposited in the electronic ballot box for that referendum, and
 - (b) the number of votes for the "yes" and "no" answers marked in the electronic ballots deposited in the electronic ballot box for that election.
- (3) If satisfied that a report generated under subsection (1) or subsection (2), as the case may be, has the required information, the Nisga'a Elections Officer must sign the report.

- (4) The report signed by the Nisga'a Elections Officer under subsection (3) for an election or referendum is, for the purposes of the Act and this Regulation, the ballot account for the electronic ballots cast in the election or referendum.
 - (5) The Nisga'a Elections Officer must provide a signed copy of a ballot account prepared in accordance with this section for the purposes of an election to
 - (a) each candidate representative present at the final count for the election who requests a copy, and
 - (b) any candidate in the election who requests a copy within seven days after the date of the final count.

Recount of ballots considered in initial count

- 63. (1) Any recount of ballots under section 57 of the Act must be completed by the Nisga'a Elections Officer, who must follow the procedures prescribed under section 51 of this Regulation for a voting officer considering ballots on an initial count.
- (2) At the conclusion of a recount under section 57 of the Act, the Nisga'a Elections Officer must prepare a ballot account for the recount, in a form determined by the Nisga'a Elections Officer, and attach it to the ballot account from the initial count for the ballot box in respect of which the recount was conducted.

Objections to acceptance of vote or rejection of ballot on final count

- 63.1 (1) During the final count for an election or referendum, an objection to the acceptance of a vote or rejection of a ballot by a candidate representative may be made only at the time the ballot is considered by the Nisga'a Elections Officer.
- (2) The decision of the Nisga'a Elections Officer regarding the acceptance of a vote or the rejection of a ballot in the final count
 - (a) may not be challenged except as provided in this section, and
 - (b) may only be changed by the Nisga'a Administrative Decisions Review Board on a recount conducted under section 62(5)(a)(ii) or (b) of the Act.
- (3) If a ballot is subject to an objection under this section, the Nisga'a Elections Officer must
 - (a) record the objection on a form determined by the Nisga'a Elections Officer, numbering each objection with a sequential number, and
 - (b) mark the number assigned to the objection under paragraph (a) on the back of the ballot and initial that number.

Division 3 – Declaration of Results and Invalid Election Procedures

Publication of final results

- 64. (1) The final results of an election or a referendum referred to in section 60 of the Act must be
- (a) published in accordance with Nisga'a law by the Nisga'a Elections Officer, and
 - (b) in the case of an election, delivered to each candidate in the election.
- (2) For certainty, the final results of an election or referendum are published for the purposes of section 62 of the Act on the date on which the Nisga'a Elections Officer publishes those results in accordance with Nisga'a law.

Publication of official results

- 65. (1) The official results of an election or a referendum referred to in section 66 of the Act must be
